Thank you sir for giving me an opportunity to introduce myself.

My name is Satish Kumar. I was born and brought up in Nalanda which was a large buddhist monastery of Magadha (Bihar) in India.

Currently I am pursuing B.tech in Computer Science and Engineering from Haldia Institute of Technology, My last semester CGPA is 8.27.

I have completed my class 10th and 12th from Saraswati Shishu Vidya Mandir, Giridih, Jharkhand which is affiliated to CBSE and got 8.2 CGPA and 80% respectively.

Moving on to the technical knowledge,

I had a project on Cloud Computing, which is one of my interesting topic and implemented many services like SaaS, STaaS, IaaS and PaaS.

Apart from Cloud Computing,

I had also build a Email SPAM classifier using Python sklearn library with a accuracy of 98%, which is one of my good project.

Apart from academics,

I found that only study is not important for a students, so I had also done many thing to develop my social skills like helping needy people,

So I had joined a educational NGO named JIGYASA for a year and served their as a post of Secretary.

I also have been working in Computer society of India, HIT Students' Branch, where I am working as a post of Program head.

Coming to my hobby,

I like to surf the Internet for the knowledge of new technology related to technical field on Daily Basis.

Also I enjoy cooking Food.

That's all about me, if you would like to know more about me than i would share further.
